ONLINE STREAMING CLASSES

The online classes are suspended till our internet connection is upgraded (very soon we hope). Once this happens, we will experiment with both Facebook and Zoom offerings in tandem. Facebook has the habit of muting the music while the class is running, which is very disruptive. Zoom seems to be good, but I need to have sufficient interest to justify a monthly license.

XMAS FESTIVAL CLASSES

We will not be offering these this Xmas. The instructors all need a break from what was a very difficult year. We look forward to everyone returning refreshed and reinvigorated in 2023. Enjoy the festive season, have a wonderful Xmas and we will catch up with you all early next year, Peter, Liz and our team of Instructors
